

NICOLE L. BIRD, BCLS

Managing Partner, Professional Land Surveyor

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Association of British Columbia Land Surveyors

Commissioned Member #928

2014-Present

Professional Surveyors Canada

Member

2014-Present

EDUCATION

British Columbia Institute of Technology

Dipl T (Diploma in Geomatics Engineering, with honours)

2003-2005

EXPERIENCE

Browne Johnson Land Surveyors

Managing Partner, Professional Land Surveyor

2007-Present

- Partner, responsible for field operations management, field survey assignments, office production and development planning
- Involved in all aspects of the survey practice
- Responsible for day-to-day operations of office staff and field crews
- Responsible for project management of legal and engineering surveys
- Working with clients, consultants, survey crews, and other professionals to keep projects running smoothly
- Responsible for equipment, software, and field / office workflow

Bennett Land Surveying

Survey Technologist

2005-2007

- Completed a variety of surveys including legal surveys, topographic surveys, building and construction layout, building location certificates, control surveys, building strata measurement and monitoring surveys

- Worked efficiently in both remote rural areas and fast-paced urban environments
- Designed surveys for high precision repeatable work
- Performed calculations and adjustments to analyze survey measurements
- Drafted and prepared survey plans

City of Burnaby

Survey Assistant

2004 (Summer)

- Worked directly with professional surveyors and senior staff on time-sensitive projects
- Worked independently on large scale mapping projects